

WHAT'S HAPPENING THIS WEEK

OUT THERE!

Deadlines for submissions to Out There! are every Wednesday at 5 p.m., one week prior to issue date. Listings are not guaranteed and are subject to space considerations. Email us at outthere@flagpole.com or call 549-9523.

PERFORMANCE

AILEY II The Committee for Black Cultural Programs and the University Union present Ailey II, formerly the Alvin Ailey Repertory Ensemble. The ensemble, led by artistic director Sylvia Waters, emphasizes repertoire, technique and performance. Each member has completed advanced study at the American Dance Center and many go on to join the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. They have performed works by Alvin Ailey, Kevin Wynn and many others. Classic Center Theater on Wednesday, Mar. 1 at 8 p.m. Tickets: $16-$20, $8-$12 UGA students. 542-8074 or 357-4444.

ARVIN SCOTT UGA professor of music, Dr. Arvin Scott is featured at the next "First Monday Performance Series" concert. Accompanied by Ed Harris on flute and saxophone, Dr. Scott's program for the evening includes selections from his recent CD, Spirit of the Drum, as well as "In the Wind," a work in progress. Dr. Scott currently teaches African, Afro-Caribbean and Brazilian hand drumming, percussion for music therapy and all-around drum set styles at the university, and he has performed with Widespread Panic and toured extensively with Grammy nominee Mose Allison. A long-time community activist, he formed the "Drumming for Success" youth program in 1996 to reward academic achievement in at-risk young people. Spirit of the Drum will be for sale before and Clarke County Library on Sunday, Mar. 5 at 3 p.m. FREE! 613-3650.

CHAMBER MUSIC The Franklin College Chamber Series continues with a performance by the Bachmann-Cecere-Klibonoff Trio featuring violin, horn and piano. All three members have won international awards and competitions and have toured extensively. UGA Hodgson Concert Hall on Friday, Mar. 3 at 8 p.m. FREE! No tickets required. 542-3737.

JOHN BERRY Country music star John Berry returns to Walton County to perform with the Walton County Symphony, conducted by John's brother, James Scott Berry. John will be available after the show to sign autographs and take pictures with fans. All proceeds benefit the Walton County Music Guild. Carver Auditorium in Monroe on Saturday, Mar. 18 at 6:15 p.m. Tickets: $25-$35. (770) 267-1512.

KING OF ZYDECO The Athens Folk Music and Dance Society presents a two-night Zydeco dance featuring Roy Carrier, the undisputed "King of Zydeco" this weekend. Along with his band, The Night Rockers, Roy performs the hottest Zydeco this side of the Mississippi. Klassics, 3155 Atlanta Hwy., on Friday, lectibles and more—all at bargain prices. Also—a children's safety fair with games, face painting, puppet shows and fingerprint identification takes place from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the courtyard. Classic Center Exhibit Hall on Saturday, Mar. 4 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Admission: $1. Special Preview Night Party (which includes a silent auction and cash bar) on Friday, Mar. 3 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Admission: $7, and prices on all merchandise double. 357-4444.

Dr. Arvin Scott performs at the 1902 OCAF Arts Center on March 6 at 8:00 p.m.

COFFEE HOUR Join the university's international students for coffee and refreshments. UGA Memorial Hall Ballroom on Friday, Mar. 3 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. FREE! 542-5867

noon. FREE! 542-3183.

LUNCH IN THEORY "Two Tangos: A Co-Existence of Styles" by Sylvia Pannell, dept. of drama. UGA Journalism Building Room 408 on Wednesday, Mar. 1 at 12:20 p.m. FREE! 542-3966.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH The first in a month-long series of events to mark Women's History Month features a lecture-recital by Ellen Ritchey, titled "Musical Sisters, Mothers and Daughters: Songs of Lili and Nadia Boulanger and Libby Larsen." Piano accompaniment by Margaret Strahl. UGA Edge Recital Hall on Wednesday, Mar. 1 at 4 p.m. This event is followed by a gallery talk on "The Kinship of Women" by