

Drumming is very supportive and important to me. Drumming has helped me understand rhythm and beat. It has also helped me understand what sounds different drums make. It helps provide hand coordination and beat. Our teacher has told us names for the different parts of the drum you hit. That helps us understand the songs and activities.

It is fun to have a big class instead of private lessons because the class and other people support the way you play.

Catherine J. Robertson
Whit Davis Elementary
Fifth Grade

Catherine J. Robertson

